EDITORIAL REVIEW.

EMBRACING

MANUFACTURERS, MERCHANTS, PROFESSIONAL MEN, ETC., OF THE

CITY OF WINFIELD.

In commenting upon the different business houses, we wish to preface our remarks with the statement that we are writing no "paid notices." This space is devoted to a review of the leading business houses, and what we have to say about them will be an honest conviction of the truth.

"TIMME THE TAILOR."

In speaking of the different professions and lines of trade and manufacturing in Winfield, our list would not be complete without a mention of "Timme The Tailor." Mr. T. R. Timme came to this city over a year ago from Chicago, and established himself as a merchant tailor; he has now one of the most complete establishments in this line in the State, and employs a number of first class assistants. Mr. Timme thoroughly understands his business, and is an artist tailor. He is also a courteous gentleman whose pleasure it is to suit his patrons. Try him once and you will never forget "Timme The Tailor."

WINFIELD BANK.

This bank was established as a State bank April 1st. 1879, being a consolidation of the Citizens Bank and J. C. Fuller's Winfield Bank. Col. J. C. McMullen was President of the Citizens Bank. The Winfield Bank is one of the solid institutions of this city and built their present handsome and

THE PRESS.

Every prominent Western City is deeply indebted to the men who wield the pen, by which the "art preservative" conveys to the outside world its advantages and facilities.

The newspapers is not only a living school book to its readers, recording the events of time, but also carries favorable news of the city it represents to all parts of the country other newspapers repeating what it says.

Winfield has one daily and three weekly newspapers, a greater number than is published in any other city of its size in the West, all of them being "home made."

THE TELEGRAM,

Is published both daily and weekly, and is the only paper in Southern or Western Kansas receiving the Daily Press Dispatches. Messrs. Allison & Crapster are the proprietors of this enterprising Journal, and have left no stone unturned in endeavoring to make it a live newsy sheet. Mr. Wm. M. Allison the senior partner, editor and manager is a gentleman of well known literary ability, and a thorough newspaper man. Though a young man yet, he has had over ten years experience as a journalist and wields an energetic pen.

Mr. D. L. Kretsinger, the local editor, is a courteous gentleman of fine ability and a great favorite in this community.

THE COURIER.

D. A. MILLINGTON, editor.

In speaking of the Courier which deserves one of the most prominent positions in our sketch of Winfield and Cowley County, we feel that its editor is entitled to more attention than even this popular and finely conducted journal. Mr. Millington is one of the oldest settlers in Winfield, and one of the Town Company, the principal street, (except Main) being named after him. He was the engineer who surveyed and laid out the town, and has ever since devoted his time, money, and energies to make the city what it is. He has twice been elected mayor of the city, has held the position of United States Commissioner for two years, and is now the Post Master of the City, which office he has held since January 1879.

He took charge of the Courier in August, 1877, since which time he has consolidated its power and influence, and made it one of the best weekly journals of the State, and peculiarly valuable to this city and county.

The Courier is a folio, nine columns to the page, one of the largest in the state, and is Stalwart Republican in politics.

THE THROUGH ROUTE.

commodious quarters last fall; it is one of the finest business structures in the State. The officers are: J. C. McMullen, President; J. C. Fuller, Cashier. Col. McMullen came to Kansas from Tennessee, in 1868, and to Winfield in 1878. He is generally recognized as a financier of great ability, and a gentleman of the highest honor and integrity.

Mr. Fuller is one of the oldest settlers in Winfield. He came from New York in 1870, and established the Winfield Bank, the first bank in the county. Mr. Fuller is an enterprising far seeing business man, to whom the city is greatly indebted for its present prosperity.

A. H. GREEN.

This gentleman is one of Winfield's representative business men, and one who has done more for its interests than any other business man in the city. He came here from Indiana in February 1870, and commenced the practice of law, but after a time, on account of the confidence reposed in him both for integrity and fine business sagacity, his clients gave him so much real estate business to attend to, that he withdrew from active legal practice three years ago, and has since devoted all his time to the Real estate business of this city and county. There is no one in this State better posted regarding real estate than is A. H. Green, and those contemplating the purchase of city property or farming lands will find it to their interest to first call on him. He has served with distinction in the army and is one of the highest officers in the militia of this State.

There are many good things we could say of Gen. Green, had we the space, as he is a high minded, noble gentleman, whose reputation as a man of honor and the highest integrity is well known.

The amount of business transacted by him is larger than that handled by all the other real estate dealers in this section, and is a sufficient guarantee of his ability and knowledge of this business. He is also the publisher of the Kansas Real Estate News which will be sent free to any address.

QUINCY A. GLASS.

This gentleman opened his drug house last February, and has one of the most complete stocks in this line in Southern Kansas. He has been in the drug trade for a number of years and is well versed in chemistry, having devoted several years to it, and is regarded as one of the leading pharmacists in the State. Mr. Glass came to Winfield about two years ago and in company with Mr. Brown, bought out Mr. Baldwin. He has since as above stated, opened a Drug store which is a credit to any Eastern city. Mr. Glass is one of our most popular business men, and those who once do business with Quincy A. Glass take pleasure in again returning. This store is located on Main, between Tenth and Eleventh avenues.

G. W. ROGERS.

This gentleman is one of our most enterprising business men, and his name is familiar to many in Southern Kansas as the proprietor of the well known "ENGLISH KITCHEN," one of the most complete and best conducted restaurants in the State.

He has also the largest bakery in the city, supplying daily a large number of people with the "staff of life."

He has also other business interests, among which is his large billiard and sample rooms, familiarly known to commercial travelers and others as "Pap Rogers place."

Mr. Rogers is a genial, courteous and enterprising gentleman of fine business ability, whom it is always a pleasure to meet. He is ably assisted in his business by his son, M. C. Rogers, a young man of fine business capacity and pleasing address.

BECK & DILLION—Photographers.

This firm consists of H. Beck, A. H. Beck, & G. W. Dillon and their gallery is located on 10th av., between Main and Manning streets.

Mr. A. H. Beck is an old resident of Cowley County, and well known to everybody. Mr. H. Beck has also been in the County for several years. Mr. G. W. Dillon, though but a year and a half in our city, is already well known and has had an experience of twenty years as a photographer.

They are all gentlemen of ability in their profession, as can readily be seen by a glance at their work in their gallery, and spare no pains in endeavoring to please their patrons.

JOE LIKOWSKI.

The above named gentleman is one of Winfield's oldest settlers, having come here ten years ago when the city was first being laid out. He has been in business ever since that time, and owns one of the most popular resorts in the city for those who wish to play a game of billiards or refresh the inner man. Joe Likowski is well known as a genial, enterprising gentleman. He is located on Main St., bet 9th and 10th avenues,

M. L. READ.

This gentleman is one of the representative men of Winfield. He came here in 1872, from Illinois, and built and opened the M. L. Read bank.

This was the first brick structure in this County, and a sample of its owners enterprise and keen fore sight. This bank is the oldest in Winfield and does an extensive business; very few banks in Kansas equalling it. The officers are: M. L. Read, President; M. L. Robinson, Cashier; W. C. Robinson, Assistant Cashier.

Mr. Read is a gentleman of fine business talent and executive ability of superior order, whose genial social qualities have made him a large number of friends,

Mr. M. L. Robinson, the cashier, is well known as a financier of great ability. He is also largely interested in Winfield, and is one of our leading business men. The employees of the bank are also gentlemen of recognized ability.

W. C. Robinson has long been identified with the bank, and is a courteous gentleman and able financier.

MOTT C. ROGERS.

This young gentleman is one of Winfield's most popular business men, and was formerly one of the firm of G. W. Rogers & Son, the late proprietors of the English Kitchen, but is now proprietor of the saloon and billiard parlor, formerly owned by his father, G. W. Rogers.

It is well known as the most popular resort in Southern Kansas, Mott being one of the most accomplished and gentlemanly caterers in the State.

THE TELEGRAM STEAM PRINTING HOUSE.

Allison & Black proprietors.

As in a great many other things, Winfield is ahead of its sister cities in Southern Kansas in having one of the most complete job printing houses to be found any where. The Telegram Steam Printing House is the only steam printing house in Southern Kansas, and is replete with every facility for doing all kinds of job work in the very best style, and at short notice.

It is constantly making improvements, and adding to its stock of machinery and material.

Mr. Bourke, formerly of Kansas City, and one of the best foremen there, has recently taken charge of it for Messrs. Allison & Black, its proprietors. He is a thorough printer, and under his management the office cannot fail to secure the greater part of the job work of this section.

THE EIGHTH AVENUE HOTEL.

This elegantly fitted up establishment was formerly known as the Olds House, and under that name has won great popularity.

Mr. J. A. Olds, the proprietor, is an experienced hotel man having been engaged in this business for some years in New York. He owned the American House originally, and run it for some time, afterward starting the Olds House, now the popular Eighth Avenue Hotel. This hotel is complete in all its arrangements, and the building is a very elegant structure,, surrounded with handsome grounds, which are now being fitted up. The table is everything that could be desired, and the hostess, Mrs. Olds, is a courteous accommodating lady who takes pride in pleasing her guests providing them with every comfort.

JOHN HOENSCHIEDT.

Architect, Civil Engineer, and Justice of the Peace.

This gentleman though but a few years in Winfield, is one of the most widely known men in the city. He was formerly County surveyor, which office he held with great credit. He is now deputy county surveyor as well as Justice of the Peace, being elected last spring. Aside from his personal popularity he is one of our most enterprising citizens, and has built one of the handsomest residences in the City.

AL. REQUA.

Blue Line Transfer.

This popular and well known transfer line was started July 1st, 1879, by Mr. Al. Requa, and has gained a reputation for reliability that is enviable. It also receives the patronage of the leading firms of the city, and that of the traveling public who are acquainted. Mr. Requa has been in the transfer business for the past ten years in different cities, and thoroughly understands it. Those visiting our city should look for Al. Requa's Blue Line if they want to feel perfectly at ease.

TERRILL'S RESTAURANT.

This Restaurant has recently been opened, Mrs. Terrill having bought out Mr. Walter, who had the restaurant prior to the present one. Though there are several good tables set in our city including the hotels, still we feel justified in stating from personal experience that Terrill's Restaurant takes the palm. No effort is spared in making every one at home,

The cuisine is all that can be desired, and the caterer of the late Central Hotel is now employed in the same department by Mrs. Terrill.

The other employes are well experienced, and under the management of their enterprising and energetic manager, Mrs. B. M. Terrill, never fail in impressing the stranger or visitors to her table, favorably. A great many of the commercial travelers take their meals here and rent rooms when they are compelled to stay a day or two; but for those either permanently or transiently located in Winfield or to those visiting our city, no superior place can be found than Terrill's restaurant.

LYNN & LOOSE.

Dry Goods, Clothing and Groceries.

This is one of the largest mercantile houses in this section, and carries an immense stock of goods in every department. The firm consists of J. B. Lynn and J. S. Loose.

Mr. Lynn is at present the mayor of Winfield, and is one of our representative men. He has been prominently identified with the interests of Winfield for some years, and has won an enviable reputation for honor and integrity. As a business man he has very few superiors, possessing financial ability of a superior order.

Mr. J. S. Loose has but recently come to this city from Paxton, Ill., where he was in the mercantile business. From what we learn Mr. Loose is a thorough business man of superior ability, and is an old friend of Mr. Lynn. He is certainly one of the most courteous gentleman it has been our pleasure to meet.

The firm is now building a new store on the corner of 8th avenue and Main street, which will be one of the largest and most elegant stores in the West, two stories high, with a fine deep basement, 140 feet long by 25 in width. The whole building will be occupied by Lynn & Loose.

BROWN & SON.

Drugs, Books, etc.

In mentioning the prominent interests of Winfield, and especially the Drug trade, we would be remiss in our duty to our readers were we to omit mentioning the extensive house of H. BROWN & SON.

This house is one of the oldest in Southern Kansas, and has changed hands several times, the latest change being the admission of Lewis Brown into the firm as the successor of Mr. Q. A. Glass, who retired January 1st. The establishment is located on Main street between 8th and 9th avenues, and is replete with every thing in the line of drugs, medicines, paints, oils and glass. In addition they carry a heavy stock of books and stationery, being the headquarters for school books.

They employ four in these two departments.

The most prominent department of this house is the prescription department, which is presided over by Mr. J. C. Ellsberry, one of the finest chemists and pharmacists in the West.

W. C. ROOT & CO.

Boots and Shoes.

This is a leading house in this line of trade in this city, carrying a large and varied stock. They are conveniently located on the west side of Main street, two doors south of 8th avenue.

This store is scarcely able to contain the stock they carry, every available part of it being filled with goods.

This house was established in August, 1877, by Messrs. W. C. Root and S. H. Root, and is entirely under the management of W. C. Root, Mr. S. H. Root being connected with one of the largest wholesale houses of St. Louis, where he resides, is enabled to select the very finest goods in the market for this house, thus enabling the people of Winfield and vicinity to select and buy as well as they would in Kansas City or St. Louis.

Mr. W. C. Root, the manager, is a refined and courteous gentleman of fine business qualifications, who takes pleasure in pleasing his patrons.

HENRY E. ASP.

Attorney at Law.

Came to Winfield from Henry County, Ill., in 1875, where he had been studying. In May, 1877, he was admitted to the bar and commenced the practice of law. Since that time his progress has been rapid, and he is now one of the leading and most popular attorneys of this city, though the youngest member of the bar, having not yet reached his 25th year. What his future will be can readily be judged by his wonderful progress in the past. He is talked of as a candidate for County Attorney, and his popularity would seem to insure his nomination in the coming Republican Convention.

W. T. EKEL.

W. A. Smith manager, Lumber and Building material.

This yard is one of the most complete in Cowley County, carrying a very extensive and well selected stock of lumber, laths, shingles and all kinds of building material, sash, doors and blinds. The yard was opened in April, 1879, and since it was established has done a large and constantly increasing business.

W. T. Ekel, the head of this yard, is constantly looking after its outside business, and being thoroughly versed in all connected with it, is enabled to secure the very best lumber etc., manufactured at the closest figures.

W. A. Smith, the manager, is a very popular gentleman, and through his close attention to business, experience and energy has given an impetus to its trade.

The yards are located on 8th avenue between Main and Manning.

HACKNEY & McDONALD.

This is one of the oldest and most reliable law firms in Kansas, and is composed of two of the foremost men of ability in Southern Kansas, W. P. Hackney and J. Wade McDonald.

Mr. Hackney was admitted to the bar 1867. He came to Cowley County from Illinois, August 16th, 1870. From the start he occupied a conspicuous place in the public councils of this section. He was elected three times to the State legislature i. e., 1872, 1874, and 1876. He had also formerly held positions in the United States Military and Civil service.

They are many good things we could say of Mr. Hackney had we the space, or felt that we could do justice to his great talent and legal and legislative ability. We close our remarks with the feeling that we have given a mere mention of what we believe our future Senator from this County.

J. Wade McDonald is from Ohio, was admitted to the bar in Alabama in 1870, and occupied the positions of collector of internal revenue and Secretary of the Senate. He came to Kansas in '72 and went to Wellington, where he was elected Probate Judge, and County Attorney. He is a gentleman of marked ability in his profession, ranking with the first in the State. He is also a leader in the Democratic party of this district.

PRYOR & KINNE.

Real Estate, Loan and Insurance agents.

Among the leading firms of this city, none deserve more attention in our city sketch than does the firm of Pryor & Kinne.

This firm was established January 1st, 1880, and though comparatively a new firm in the real estate business in Winfield, yet on account of the high standing of its individual members, it is now doing a large business. The members of the firm are: S. D. and Jno. D. Pryor and E. P. Kinne.

Messrs Pryor are from Galena, Ill., where they were engaged in the practice of law before coming to Winfield six years ago. Since coming to Winfield they have had a large legal practice. They are both gentlemen of ability, and bear a high reputation in Cowley County.

Mr. E. P. Kinne is formerly from Bushnell, Ill., and though not quite as long in this city as his partners, has through his personal popularity been elected twice to the position of County Register of Deeds, which position he has held with great credit, gaining him the esteem of the entire County. As a business man his reputation for honor and integrity cannot be excelled.

The business of the firm not only keep all three busy, but also employs several clerks continually. Their elegant offices are in the Winfield Bank building.

J. P. BADEN.

Wholesale and Retail, Dry Goods, Groceries, etc.

This gentleman though young in years, has had a more valuable experience in this line, (of which he has made good use) than many who appear to be old business men, and receive credit as such. Mr. Baden came to Winfield a little over a year ago from Independence, Kan., where he was engaged in the same line of trade, and has in that time built up a business second to none in the city. The cause of his remarkable success is not only due to his ten years of close attention to this business, but also to his great energy and unflinching activity in securing the best line of goods in the different markets, at prices which enable him to give his patrons the very best at the least cost. His store is located on corner Main, and 10th avenue.

W. W. PERKINS.

Attorney at Law.

Mr. Perkins came to Winfield last year from Chicago, Ill. where he had been practicing for over ten years, and at one time Attorney for the Chicago Board of Education. Previously he was admitted to practice in both the State and Federal courts. He ranked among the best lawyers in that city, and had a lucrative practice, but owing to ill health in his family he moved to Winfield, this climate being more favorable.

N. A. HAIGHT,

County Surveyor,

Is now occupying this office for the second term, and has showed marked ability as a surveyor. He has been in the State thirteen years and in this city three years.

CHARLES C. BLACK ESQ.

Of the prominent men of this city, few are deserving of as great credit as is due the subject of this sketch. Charles C. Black came to Winfield from Illinois nine years ago and is one of our old residents. He is an attorney of fine ability, and is well known as a gentleman of the highest honor and strictest integrity. He is at present a member of the city council, and has occupied several official positions during his residence in this city.

THE HEALTH OFFICE.

This establishment is owned by Messrs. Campbell and Jackson, but is under the management of Jno. M. Jackson. It is located on the east side of main, between 9th and 10th avenues. As a popular resort it has not its superior in Southern Kansas. Mr. Jackson is not only a gentleman in every sense of the word, but also one who takes pleasure in catering to the wants of his patrons. The "Health office" is supplied with the very finest liquors, wines and cigars, and is always the general resort for the traveling fraternity, and those who wish the finest goods,

WINFIELD CITY MILLS.

Wood, Jettinger & Co., Proprietors.

This mill was built by C. A. Bliss in 1873, and is located on the Walnut river just West of the City limits.

The mills are complete in every way, having three run of burrs with sufficient water power to run more if necessary. Its storing capacity, though large, is inadequate to their present large business, and Messrs Wood, Jettinger & Co., the successors of Mr. Bliss, contemplate enlarging the mill and increasing the capacity in a short time, by an addition to the building and new machinery. These mills have long had an enviable reputation for the superiority of its flour, which under the management cannot fail, but be more widely spread. Messrs. B. F. Wood and E. B. Wolfe of the firm, being practical millers of some years experience.

The firm consists of B. F. Wood, Oscar Jettinger, E. B. Wolfe and D. L. Williams. They are all from Ohio, where Messrs. Wood and Wolfe were engaged in Milling, Mr. Jettinger being in the banking business at Delphoe.

From all we understand they are live enterprising men of fine business ability and the strictest integrity. Their financial standing is good and they have every facility for carrying on business on a large scale.

TAYLOR FITZGERALD.

Attorney and Dealer in Real Estate.

Winfield has been fortunate in a great many ways, but in none more so than in receiving among those who have recently come to make their home in our city, some of the very best and most talented business and professional men to be found anywhere. Among those is the above named gentleman, who is rapidly making a solid foundation for a large and successful business in the future,

Mr. Fitzgerald's former home is Indianapolis, though he has recently lived four years in Washington D. C., where he studied law at the celebrated Columbia College,

MRS. DR. M. COULTER

In connection with many others who figure prominently in their respective callings and of whom we speak, none are more worthy of notice than the above named lady. She was born in Germany and has not only had the advantages of medical study in this country, but has also had the benefit of the schools of Germany.

Since coming to this city she has built up, through her ability and knowledge, a large and growing practice among some of the leading families of this city and Cowley and Sumner Counties.

Previous to coming to Winfield she had established a good practice at Atchison, Kan., where she was located over a year. Office in Manning's block.

VANCE & DAVIS.

Livery and Feed Stable.

This firm is composed of J. H. Vance and A. W. Davis; they bought out Thompson and Wilson last December, who were the former proprietors.

Mr. Vance was formerly one of the proprietors of the Central Hotel, and Mr. Davis has been for the past two years a resident of Kansas.

Their stable is one of the largest in Southern Kansas, and they keep a number of fine horses, which with their handsome turnouts, are greatly sought for. By their gentlemanly conduct and strict attention to the wants of their patrons, they are building up a popularity and reputation that is enviable. The stable is located on 9th avenue, between Main and Manning streets.

We cheerfully recommend these gentlemen to all wishing anything in this line.

J. H. STAUFFENBERG.

Merchant Tailor.

This gentleman has recently opened a first-class tailoring establishment on Main street next door to Harter's Drug Store.

Mr. Stauffenberg thoroughly understands his business, having been for a number of years connected with some of the leading merchant tailors in the country. He has also fine taste and judgement in selecting what will best suit his patrons. His work is first-class, and his goods of the best material.

All of the latest styles are received by him, regularly from which you can select.

He is a gentleman of fine ability, great energy, and untiring in attending to all the details connected with his business. In selecting this city for his home he has carefully compared it with other parts of the country, and has shown his opinion by investing to some extent in our city property.

In connection with his law practice he also deals largely in real estate, his reliability and knowledge being readily recognized by those either wishing to buy or sell. His list of farming land and city property is very large and varied, embracing almost anything.

M. HAHN & CO.

Dry Goods, Clothing, Etc.

This firm consists of M. Hahn and A. J. Burgauer, and their house is located on west Main street, in the Opera House building.

No house in Winfield ranks higher than M. Hahn & Co., and very few are equal to it in any line of trade. They carry a large and well selected stock in each department, thus enabling their patrons to secure all the advantages that can be offered in a large city.

Mr. Burgauer or Mr. Hahn goes east every season to secure the very best goods for his house, and as he is an experienced merchant can get them at the very lowest figures.

Messrs. Hahn and Burgauer are thorough gentlemen, courteous and accommodating to all with whom they come in contact. W. H. Hyden has charge of the Dry Goods and G. M. Coplin the Clothing Department.

CURNS & MANSER.

Real Estate, Loan and Insurance Agents.

As purchasers of real estate are constantly visiting our city, either to buy city property or farming land, it is of interest to them to know when to go and of whom to make their purchases. It is naturally supposed that those who are handling a great deal of property must know something about it. Messrs. Curns & Manser are not only real estate agents of long experience, and thoroughly posted as to where the best city and county property is, but they are also courteous gentlemen, who take pleasure in giving information to all inquiries after real estate. Their office on the west side of Main street, between 8th and 9th avenues is constantly sought for by those wanting information regarding either rich farming lands around us, or city property, and all their inquiries are met with a genial smile and ready answer. These gentlemen are always prepared to loan money on good real estate security on the most reasonable terms. The Insurance companies represented by them are: The North American, of Philadelphia; Hartford, of Connecticut;

North British and Mercantile; Fire and Marine, Springfield, Mass., Westchester, New York; Traders, Chicago; National of Hartford, and Metropole, of Paris, France.

Messrs Curns & Manser expect to build for themselves a handsome and commodious business house this season.

They are members of the Kansas Land and Emigration Company, of Lafayette, Indiana.

Cook & Anderson's Rebate tickets taken as cash on purchases of real estate.

Agents for the Travelers Life and Accident Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut.

WALLIS & WALLIS.

Groceries and provisions, Queensware, Woodenware Etc

This is one of the best grocery firms in the city, and they keep a large variety of groceries, which are sold at reasonable prices. They have a large trade, and among their patrons are some of the best families in Winfield. Besides groceries they keep on hand, and are always ready to sell at the lowest prices, perhaps the very best stock of Queensware, Woodenware, etc., to be found in this or any city of Southern Kansas,

The Messrs. Wallis expect to build on their present location a two story brick business house, which when completed will be an ornament to the city. The building will probably be put up during the present season.

This firm is noted for its business enterprise, and the members of the firm are trustworthy gentlemen.

Their establishment is located on the east side of Main, between 8th and 9th avenues, and their goods are always of the best and freshest.

SPEED & MOFFITT.

Livery and Feed Stable.

The stable of this firm is conveniently located on the east side of Main street, between 8th and 9th avenues. The building has a front of fifty feet by a depth of one hundred feet, and has ample capacity for all the needs of a first-class livery and feed stable. The firm is composed of Mr. A. D. Speed who came to this place in June, 1878, and Mr. Jno. Moffitt, who came in August, 1879. These gentlemen thoroughly understand their business, and have already built up a large trade. Their fine horses can always be relied on, and their vehicles are of the best.

Those having dealings with Messrs. Speed & Moffitt can rest assured that they will be treated with courtesy and respect.

WILLIAMS HOUSE.

This is one of the leading hotels of Southern Kansas, and was built and opened by its present proprietor, Frank Williams, Esq. It is a handsome brick structure, located on the corner of 10th avenue and Main streets. It contains a num-
